- One of the most learned and valuable books in the whole range of modern Literature. It has done more than most others to open the minds of the European world to the real history of Ancient India, the right interpretation and confirmation of Greek records, and the connexion of the Hindu Aryas with the modern peoples of the west. The proper investigation of Buddhist monuments in India is considered by General Cunningham to be of more importance than a critical edition of the eighteen Puranas.

- In spite of its extraordinary and farfetched identifications, this work will always remain valuable as the production of a learned and critical scholar. There is plenty of material in it for the Comparative Mythologist.

- 16366 GROSSII et TONJOLÆ Basilea Sepulta Detecta, cum Appendice, 2 vols. in 1, sm. 4to. frontispiece, 566 pp. many thousand Epitaphs, calf, 9s 1661

 To identify the Buddhists and the Celts, to shew that all mythologies and religions merely degenerated from the pure worship instituted by those people, that the builders of Stonehenge spoke a language akin to Hebrew, and that the Greeks were ignorant boobies as compared with the Ancient Celts (Scythians, Etruscans, Phœnicians, or Buddhists, or whatever else he calls them) ;—such was the aim of Mr. Higgins. This ridiculous book struck terror to the heart of Orthodoxy—(an owl mistaking the donkey's bray for the lion's roar) ; but it yields many valuable items of collected information to the student of Archæology.
- 16368 HOUBEN'S Denkmæler von Castra Vetera und Colonia Trajana, atlas 4to. 45 coloured plates of ROMAN Antiquities, preserved at Xanten, hf. morocco, 10s 6d Xanten, 1839

- 16388 ——— the same, LARGE PAPER, folio, 44 plates, half russia, RARE, 20s 1610-13 (? 1746)
- The difference in the number of plates between the small and the large paper is caused by the latter having a portrait, a title and four plates which are not in the former, while the small paper has one plate of coins not in the other. There is also a text in the large paper; none in the small. It seems probable that the above large paper issue was made in 1746.

"For chronology there is a great French work, L'Art de Vérifier les Dates."
Prof. Smith on History.
"The necessity of supplying historians and antiquarians with requisite information was long since felt in France, and produced the publication of that splendid monument of learning, "L'Art de Vérifier les Dates," which has left little to be done by subsequent chronologists besides the humble duties of translation and abridgement."—Sir Harris Nicolas's Chronology of History.
"Dom Maur. d'Antine had the first idea of this celebrated work. He died before its completion: it was published by two of the brotherhood, Dom Clément and Dom Durand, in 1750. It was a complete chaos. Don Clément undertook the task of reducing it to order, and published a new edition of it in 1770, which entirely eclipsed the original. After thirteen years' additional labour, Don Clément announced what he modestly called the third edition. The chronological table was carried on another century; as well as that of the eclipses, calculated by Père Pingré. Other important additions were made to the three folio volumes, the first of which appeared in 1783, the second in 1784, and the third in 1787. The tables were not published until 1792. When we cast our eyes on the title of this work, we are struck with astonishment; when we examine its contents, admiration is blended with surprise. A pure and ardent love of the public good alone could have supported the authors through such an enterprise. It is a work of general utility."

 Priced, 1824, Thorpe, bds. £18. 18s. It is so rare that Lelewel, while writing his celebrated work, "Numismatique du Moyen Age," could not obtain access to a copy of it, and left on record his opinion of its value, and his regret at losing the aid he should have derived from it.  Architectural medals have not received that attention to which they are entitled: they reflect the customs of the ancients in reference to their buildings, and reveal matters of historical interest, otherwise imperfectly known, of which they alone offer evidence.

completing a descriptive Catalogue of Twelve Thousand Greek Coins, with Notes Geographical and Historical, Map and Index, 4to. (pub.
at £3. 3s) cloth, £2. 2s 1856

These volumes contain full descriptions of the valuable collection of Coins belonging to the late Colonel Leake, purchased at the price of £5000. for the Fitzwilliam Museum.

"In the 'Numismatic Hellenica' not only is every coin separately registered and described, but its bearing upon Greek history and its connection with the literature, or the mythology, or the palæography, or the political and social condition, or the geography of Ancient Greece are explained in a series of notes extending over the whole work."—Canon J. H. Marsden.

"His researches, prosecuted under manifold disadvantages, must continue to form the basis of all that yet remains to be done towards completing our systematic knowledge of the subject which has worthily occupied so many years of his life: in all essential points they are models of their kind."

Edinburgh Review, July, 1842.

There has hitherto been no comprehensive English work on this extremely attractive subject,—“the Jewish Coinage,” which forms a very important Pillar of the HISTORICAL TRUTH of the BIBLE. Orthodox Christians and Sceptics alike will do well to read and refer to this unbiassed work, which states and illustrates numerous Biblical events with the utmost impartiality. The designs of the Coins were made by Mr. Fairholt from the Coins themselves, chiefly in the British Museum.

Of Roger Niger, Bishop of London, an interesting account is given in Newcourt's Repertorium, Vol. I, p. 13. He withstood the King of England to his face on several important occasions. He bestowed much in building the Church of St. Paul, and consecrated the Choir in 1240. In this volume will be found many curious ordinances and regulations respecting the City of London. The book formerly belonged to Dr. Mead. It should certainly be now secured for the City.

The testimony of Arsenius, Archbishop of Monembasia (1533), strongly bears out the prince's claims.

17325 ——— the same, 7 vols. in 5, folio, veau fauve, a beautiful copy, £7. 7s 1598

Distinct portions of this valuable work are allotted to the genealogies of the principal families of England and Scotland; it is the first book that was ever published on the subject. "Ce grand ouvrage d'Henninges sur les genealogies est regardé comme un des plus savans et un des plus achevés parmi ceux qui ont été mis au jour sur cette partie. Il est non seulement remarquable par les dissertations intéressantes qu'il renferme, mais encore par la vérité qui les caractérise. Il est difficile d'en trouver des exemplaires complets; et quand on est parvenu à rassembler toutes les parties qui les composent, c'est un ouvrage qui devient alors précieux." — De Bure.

The extreme rarity of an entire set results from the historical fact that many copies of the work were destroyed when Magdeburgh was sacked by Count Tilly.

Venetia, Taminelli, 1578

VERY RARE. There was a book with a similar title to the above, and bearing on the title the author's name, "Aless. Vecchi," published in Venice in 1587. It may be a later edition of the above work. COLLATION: Signatures A to G ii, being 26 leaves, including title. The work consists only of Arms and Names from Arimondo to Justo, without any text.

- 17458 ZAZZERA, Nobilità dell' Italia, parte seconda, sm. folio, vellum, £2. 10s

Napoli, 1628

This copy wants two leaves of Table which appear to have been published at a later date; but a contemporary hand has supplied a MS. Index, and numbered the pp. 1-280 (of which pp. 213-14—the second leaf of Orsini—are wanting). A note in the same hand appears at the foot of title, "Sin ora non è comparso altro che questa parte," which is not correct. The work was apparently printed in Monographs, with separate leaves and supplements, all unnumbered, of which the author issued his first collection, with a title, in 1615; and what he printed after that year, appeared subsequently to his death, in the above compiled form, with the title of Second Part, 1628.

Very few copies were printed and only for private circulation. This copy, from an inscription, appears to have been presented to the celebrated Procureur General, Guy Coquille, Seigneur de Romenay, who wrote several works bearing on the same subject. He has written on title-page, "Du Don de Monseigneur le Xe Mars, 1581." Guigard in his Bibliothèque Héraldique, pronounces the work "EXCESSIVEMENT RARE."

The above contains the 14th livraison, pp. 391 to 394 of the second volume. Copies extending to page 390 are usually considered perfect; but Brunet states that Vol. 2 should end with page 414. Copies containing these additional leaves however are of such extreme rarity, that according to the Catalogue of De Jonge's Library, sold in Brussels in 1864, not more than six such copies exist. Vol. II. pp. 139-170 are in duplicate.

- 17477 ARGOTE DE MOLINA (Gonçalo) Nobleza del Andalusia, sm. folio, numerous large woodcuts of Arms, old calf, £3. 13s 6d Sevilla, 1588
A rare work.
- "Cet ouvrage contient les armoiries de toute la noblesse Andalouse. Il est d'une grande importance, non seulement pour le généalogiste, mais encore pour l'historien et le littérateur. Argote de Molina, en parlant des nobles enfants de sa patrie, rapporte aussi l'histoire du temps où ils vécurent, et en racontant certains faits d'armes ou batailles, il n'oublie pas de citer les romances et les compositions poétiques populaires qui les rappellent. Plusieurs de ces poésies, qui remontent au XIV^e siècle, auraient été perdues pour nous, si le savant annaliste n'eut pris le soin de les transmettre ainsi à la postérité. Soit qu'on recherche beaucoup ce livre en Espagne, soit qu'il n'ait été tiré qu'à un petit nombre d'exemplaires, le fait est qu'aujourd'hui on en rencontre fort peu et encore manquent-ils le plus souvent du titre."—Salva.

 VERY RARE. Bernal's copy fetched at Sotheby's in 1855, £3. 18s; and another brought £4. 10s at Puttick's in 1860. No other has since occurred for sale.
 It is to be presumed that most of the copies were originally exhausted by the American demand, and that the destruction brought about by revolutions has caused the scarcity and high price of the work.
